'This woman has been caught in the act of adultery. The law of Moses says to stone her. So what do YOU say?' They were trying to trap Jesus into saying something they could use against him..." "In Jerusalem, near the Sheep Gate, was the pool of Bethesda, which was surrounded by five covered porches. A large crowd of all sorts of disabled people would lie by the pool, waiting for a miracle. There was a legend that every once in a while an angel would stir up the water, and who-

But the second criminal rebuked him, "Man, don't you even fear God when you're dying? We deserve to die for our evil deeds, but this man hasn't done anything wrong!" (Luke 23:39-41).

"Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom." And Jesus replied, "I guarantee you that today you will be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:42-43).
