

A DAY IN THE LIFE

Week 2: Tidying Up

Jun 1-2, 2019

⁴Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ⁵ Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. ⁶ These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷ Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up” (Deuteronomy 6:4-7 NIV).

SHEMA

שמע

Definition of Shema: Hear, Listen and Obey

1. _____ GO FIRST.

“These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts” (Deuteronomy 6:6 NIV).

“So commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these words of mine. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. Teach them to your children” (Deuteronomy 11:18-19 NLT).

2. PARENTS _____ YOUR KIDS.

“Impress them on your children” (Deuteronomy 6:7a NIV).

3. _____ TOGETHER _____.

“Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up” (Deuteronomy 6:7b NIV).

Questions for Meditation & Discussion

1. How would you summarize the main point of this “Tidying Up” message?
2. What is the definition of Shema? Where is it in the Bible?
3. How has it proven to be the most powerful, transformational strategy ever?
4. What is the first thing parents need to focus on in order to practice the Spiritual discipline of Shema?
5. From point two what do we mean by “impress” our children?
6. When will your family sit at home together and eat and talk around the table?
7. How will you and your family now “tidy up” your home, “hear” what the Father has spoken, and live in obedience to Him?
